

contents

---

introduction: Biography of Louise Michel	1
tribute to Louise Michel from Victor Hugo	24
chapter one: Early Life
Louise Michel: Sources of rebellion	28
Louise Michel: Poem	31
Louise Michel: Letter to Victor Hugo	31
chapter two: Seizing the Guns
Louise Michel: Seizing the guns	34
Louise Michel: Open letter defending the seizing of the guns at Montmartre	36
Bertolt Brecht: The Days of the Commune	37
chapter three: Paris Enraged
Friedrich Engels: History of the Commune	45
Louise Michel: Life during the Commune	51
Louise Michel: Letter to the Mayor of Montmartre	57
Louise Michel: Letter to the Editors of La Sociale newspaper	58
chapter four: When the Women Decide They         Have Had Enough
Louise Michel: On women's rights	60
A call to the women of Paris	62
Request for organizational assistance from the Commune	64
Elisabeth Dmitrieff: Letter to the Commune	66
chapter five: The First Dress Rehearsal in         World History
Karl Marx	70
Friedrich Engels	71

Mikhail Bakunin	73
William Morris	75
Peter Kropotkin	76
V.I. Lenin	78
Howard Zinn	80
Paul Foot	82
Sheila Rowbotham	84
chapter six: “The Internationale”
“The Internationale”	90
V.I. Lenin: The workers’ anthem	92
chapter seven: Exile in New Caledonia
Louise Michel: The Kanaks were seeking the same liberty...	94
Louise Michel: Art for all, Bread for all, Science for all	96
Louise Michel: Letter protesting removal from Numbo camp	98
chapter eight: Authority Vested in One Person is a Crime
Louise Michel: Statement to the military tribunal, 1871	100
Report of Louise Michel’s trial for insulting police, 1882	102
Telegram to organizers of the Les Invalides protest	104
Louise Michel: Les Invalides Trial, 1883	105
Letter to the Comissioner of Police	107
chapter nine: Emma and Louise
Emma Goldman: There was spirit and youth in her eyes	109
Emma Goldman: Louise Michel was a complete woman	112
resources
Books in English	116
Books in French	116
On the Paris Commune	117
Websites and Film	117